GENERAL ORGANIZATION OF THE NORTH TARRYTOWN JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

North Tarrytown, New York

The end has come as come it must
To all things in these sweet June days
The teacher and the scholar trust
Their parting feet to separate ways.

And when the world shall link your names
With gracious lives and manners fine,
The teacher shall assert her claims,
And proudly whisper, "These were mine."

DEDICATION

Although he has left, the students and faculty at North Tarrytown High School will always remember Mr. Miller. His words of advice and encouragement went deep in our minds and his smiling face engraved for itself a place in our hearts.

To you, Mr. Miller, we dedicate this yearbook to show our appreciation for all that you have done to help us.

You were always so patient, during those years

When we needed advice,

You understood all our problems and calmed
all our fears,

And so as they leave, as just from the start,

Each senior can say, "There's a place in my heart,

For you, Mr. Miller."

We Seniors

We're not really crazy, as it sometimes may seem,
We're not even "slightly off of the beam."
We're just a good class that likes plenty of fun,
You've heard of us ,the Class of '51.

We may not be brilliant but we're not to bad,
(We've only driven a few teachers mad.)
We always work hard (the day before tests.)
The time between these is used for our rests(?).

For some, Doc's is their hangout, and they make it pay,
All through the week, both night and day.
But for the rest, they go up town and down,
From Ossining to Hastings they cover the ground.

But for all of these careless ways;
The past four years bave been our happiest days.
We've had our fling at North Tarrytown High,
We've captured that spirit that never will die.

And when we are gone, (and we have no fear)
This book will remind you of the times we were here.
So just turn the pages, and when you've begun,
You will remember the CLASS OF '51.

To the Class of '52 we leave;
All the luck we could gather together.
You'll have plenty of fun, and maybe a tear
But you'll love it no matter the weather.

You'll worry, you'll work
'Till your quite beserk
But you'll always be back for more,
Because there is something about this school of ours,
That won't let you close the door.

So "hats off" to the class that will take our place,
As seniors in North Tarrytown High
To the class who can do it, can follow our pace,
Be good '52 and goodbye.

CLASS WILL

We the class of '51, do declare this to be our last Will and Testament. To the Administration and Faculty — we leave the hope that soon they will have a new school.
To Mr. Story — We leave a new yard stick to bring the class of "52" to order.
To Mr. Hynes — We leave a new American History class for 3:30 "Tea Parties."
I, Theodore Agar, leave my seat in study hall and room 14, and all my worries and books to my brother, Paul.
I, Elvira Belanich, leave with the hope that my brother, Michael, has as much fun in high school as I have had.
I, Grace Brideau, leave eight brothers and sisters to enjoy high school days at N. T. To the teachers I leave my best wishes.
I, Jeanne Brogan, leave my "Blushing streask" to anyone who can take the ribbing that goes with them.
I, Joy Camera, leave Dottie Nicholas alone at lunchtime with my "kid" brother, John.
I, Angelo Cavalieri, leave my place playing the piano in Orchestra and for the Glee Club, Double Quartet, Singing Horsemen, dances, entertainment, and assembly programs, to whoever wants to have fun and go crazy.
I, Walter Ceconi, leave my football socks to Henry Bucci, and my helmet to "Whisper" Murray if he can get into it.
I, Doris Chiasson, leavy my ability to sleep in classes to any future senior with no ambition.
I, Bob Collin, would leave my pole vaulting pole to Angelo Usai if he could lift it.
I, Mary Jane Conti, leave my happy days at N. T. to be with Joe.
I, Marilyn Cornell, leave with the hope that my brother, Dick, successfully finishes his high school courses.
I, Gerald Cosgrove, leave N. T. happily, because Ann is waiting for me; but my spirit will always be haunting the baseball bench and uniform number 22.
We, Shirley Couture and Barbara Ronan, leave our fun as seniors to Rose Marie, Betty, "Pinky," and "J.J.", in the hopes that they don't get into as much trouble as we did.
I, Pat Cudney, leave N.T. to my sister, Connie, because she'll be the last Cudney for awhile.
I, Priscilla Dickson, leave to Mary Ann Fleming the fun she will have "excavating for her mine."
I, Benjamin Edmonds, leave nothing, as I have nothing to leave.
I, Ena Edmonds, leave all my troubles to Harry Banta.
I, Edward Erickson, gladly leave.
I, Josephine Ferraro, leave my "great height" to anyone who wants to belong to the underworld.
I, John Forman, leave N. T. for a trip to the moon where greener pastures are awaiting.
I, Pat Gallagher, leave with one regret, that I cannot take George with me.
I, Claudette Gaulin, leave all the joys that go with being a senior to my brother, Donald, with the hope that he doesn't get into as much trouble as I did.
I, John "Horace" Gileno, leave unwillingly as I cannot take Joan with me.
I, Neil Gollogly, Jr., leave my best wishes for successful cross country seasons to Tommy Moore and Doug Gamble.
I, Barbara Grierson, leave Joan Biloon and Fran Cresswell to walk to school without me.
I, Ann Haggerty, leave my favorite pastime to Janet Logan.
I, Mary Herlihy, leave all my happy memories of N. T. to my sister, Anne, for I now go to be with Joe.
I, Angie Ippolito, leave my position as Majorette of the N. T. Band to Fran Cresswell.
I, Pat Jones, leave to my sister my love of all the sports; I hope she may be a Chopper some day.
I, Richard Kelly, leave my seat in study hall to my brother, John.
I, Freda Kirby, leave my joys and sorrows in my senior year to my brother, Jackie.
I, Frank Kosilla, leave, to wait for Jo.
I, Alex Lazor, leave my "White Bucks" to John Iurato and "Chobie" Maher.
I, Elinor Lemon, leavy my seat in study hall to my sister Fanny, who is most deserving of it.
I, Barbara Lofaro, leave to "little" Smitty my enjoyment in showing films.

I, Theodore R. London, leave to Jean and the freshmen, Lillian, Edna, "Mr. Smith," and "Big" John Nicol my thanks for all the pleasure and help which the have given to me.

I, Delma Mann, leave to the remaining Manns, Geneva and Joe, lots of luck while occupying my study hall seat in their senior year.

I. Nellie Mercelin, leave all my joys and sorrows of my senior year to all my relatives and friends, who have the good fortune to reach their senior year.

I, Frank Matra, leave without a will.

I, James McElwain, leave to my brother, Danny, my ability to walk into Mr. Hynes' room five minutes after the bell rings, both morning and afternoon.

I, Ida Migliarese, leave my seat in Latin class to anyone who enjoys taking Latin as much as I do.

I, Lorenzo Parra Morata, leave my study hall seat to my brother, Rodrigo, who will be in my place in a few years.

I, Pat Murphy, leave my admiration for long eye-lashes to Sheila Logan.

I, Hugh W. Nicol, leave "Whisper" Murray and "Jumbo" Bucci behind.

I, Paul Niebanck, leave all the records I broke in cross-country to another "star" Don Collier.

I, Joseph "Occ" Occhipinti, leave with but one regret that I cannot take Jeanette with me.

I, Peter Oley, leave my sweatsuit and flats to Jack Gallagher.

I, Edith Papp, leave to my sister Gladys, for her four years of high school, all the fun, happiness and knowledge, that I cannot take with me.

I, Alba Pagura, leave with the hope that my brother, John, will derive as much enjoyment and pleasure from his high school days as I did from mine.

I, Katherine Partlow, leave my many heartaches to "Cathy" Dennis, my unusual nickname to anyone who wants the ribbing that goes with it and my fond memories of N. T. to Janis Harris.

I, Alice Marie Power, leave all my happy days at N. T. H. S. to be with Danny. I also leave Joan Payne to run to school alone, every morning and lunchtime.

I, "Packy" Powers, leave Henry Bucci and Tom Murray best wishes for future success.

I, John Ragusa, leave my nose-guard to John Mansa.

I, George Raishy, leave some of my hair to Coach Willmott, to replace what I caused him to lose in past baseball seasons.

I, Marilyn Rakacky, leave to be with "BRUD."

I, Paul Ranieri, leave to "Whisper" Murray and Henry Bucci the thought of traveling the route safely next year.

I, Mary Remling, leave my seat in study hall (4th row, last seat) to anyone who wants to know all about the school romances.

I, Joan Marie Richard, leave my job on the make-up committees for the school plays to anyone who likes it as much as I did.

I, Jane Robbins, leave to Sue Oley my seat in Mr. Hynes's history class, unless I need it again next year.

I, Edward Schulz, will . . . leave.

I, June Shaughnessy, leave to my brother, Stan, My seat in study hall and Mr. Hynes, but take my fond memories of N. T. with me.

I, Joan Shute, leave all the fun I had in my senior year to Cathy Dennis.

I, Ro Steponaitis, leave my twirling position in the front line to my sister, Joan.

I, Arlene Stoller, leave Angelo Usai and his food not because I want to, bue because I have to - - - !

I, Bill Tait, leave my parking space on Elm Street to anyone who can get there first.

I, Marguerite Timmings, leave my position as French Club treasurer to anyone who can stand being called "Money Bags."

I, Lucille Tornello, leave my happy days at N. T. but their memories I take with me.

I, Pat Venitucci, leave my ability to shoot pool to Dom Gagliardi who will never learn how.

I, Shirley Volk, leave my seat in study hall to Claire Barton, but I take with me the memories of all the happy times we had together.

I, Roman Windas leave . . . my love for N. T. to anyone who likes to travel.

I, Dorothy Wonsola, leave to be with Andy.

I, Betty Yager, leave my position as captain of the twirling squad to Lorraine Wetzel and my good times in study hall to Janet Logan and Carol Galick.

I, Alice Wright, leave my love of athletics to Josephine Resta.

I, Wilhelmina White, leave to my sister, Joan, my seat number 10 in row 6, in study hall.

CLASS HISTORY

The members of the Class of 1951 have really made a record of which we may be proud. We can always look back upon our four years at N. T. H. S. with a fine sense of accomplishment. We would like to share with you the highlights of this record.

We emerged from the obscurity of the junior high school in the Fall of '47, and, before we knew it, were broken in properly at the Frosh Initiation in September. Walter Ceconi and Joy Camera were chosen as mascots by the lordly seniors. Things weren't as bad as we had expected; as an introduction to high school life, it was an evening well worth remembering . . . An all-boy slate of officers was elected to lead the class through its first year, including: Alex Lazor, president; Walt Ceconi, vice-president; John Malandrino, secretary; and Frank Kosilla, treasurer . . . Our advisor, Mr. Williams, a newcomer to N. T., led the class inputting over a very successful dance, the Frost Frolic, in December . . . In Sports, we already displayed that our class had a wealth of athletes. Eight boys made varsity teams in their freshman year . . . We climaxed a great year by putting on an assembly in May.

As sophomores we continued to be an outstanding class. Once again, Alex Lazor was elected president, with Hugh Nicol, Grace Brideau, and Arlene Stoller as his "little helpers." Miss Marion Hennessey was really a grand advisor and did much to make our dance, the "Sophomore Fiesta," a huge success . . . One of the unique facts about this year was that almost all of the twirlers were sophomores . . . In sports, we continued to pour talent into the fray, including six boys to the newly-organized hockey team.

Upperclassmen we were already. Alex Lazor — where have we heard his name before — was elected president; Hugh Nicol, vice-president; Alice Wright, secretary; and Arlene Stoller, treasurer. Mr. Hutchinson took on the task of directing the class activities. The junior dance was presented in November, and we called it "Autumn Serenade." We received our class rings in January . . . We produced leaders in many departments; Joe Occhipinti was discovered as an artist, Angelo

Cavalieri as a pianist, Pat Cudney as a politician and Ed Schulz as a scientist. Walt Ceconi was named most valuable football player of 1949 . . . To top off the year, we co-sponsored the Junior-Senior Ball, always a big event at the school.

Finally the magic year has arrived. An unpredictable class we turned out to be, and we really gave the teachers a hard time — especially Mr. Story and Mr. Hynes, our capable advisors . . . Initiation was more fun from the top end. John Nicol and Pat Seba became our mascots . . . Yearbook editors were elected, and work was begun on this edition of the "Headless Horseman." The sale of Christmas cards earned the class a badly-needed $500., and the winning team enjoyed a delicious dinner at Bertrand's Restaurant . . . The first dance of the year, in October, was the most successful we ever sponsored. All this took place under a new group of officers; Ted London was president; Joe Occhipinti, vice-president; June Shaughnessy, corresponding secretary; Mary Jane Conti, financial secretary; and Arlene Stoller, treasurer . . . The tempo began to pick up after the Christmas holidays; in January we held the "Show Boat" dance, and as a result Angelo Cavilieri was given an audition with Ted Mack. Then in February we produced the comedy "Hamlet" for an assembly, which brought out much of the formerly undiccovered talent of the high school . . . Bert Helfinstein and Joe Selnekovic returned from their four-month "vacation" to the West . . . Paul Niebanck became valedictorian, and Alice Wright, saultatorian.

June came at last. The Senior Ball, Baccalaureate, and Class Night passed quickly, and then our big moment was upon us — Commencement — and what a wonderful moment it was . . . Now, no matter where we are headed — to college, business school, work, Korea, or, for some of us, another year at N. T., we can say to ourselves that we have completed a job well done.

CLASS PROPHECY

A lavish banquet is being held at the luxurious French restaurant the "Squat-ta-vou Club" operated by the Misses Claudie Gaulin and Shirley Couture, which celebrates the opening of the 10th Stoller Department Store.

Among the many celebrities at this gala occasion, is the guest of honor, Miss Alice Wright, the first woman president, who is world famous for the quotation "Wright makes Might." Accompanying President Wright is Secretary of State, Miss Patricia Cudney, who has just presented a bill to rid the schools of all festerises and seminerises.

The main attraction of the evening is the appearance of the lovely, vivacious, Miss Joy Camera, who has just completed her latest picture, "The Dancing Dollies," accompanied by her press agent Fluter Powers.

The guests are arriving rapidly now in beautiful black, shiny, lush limousines. Zooming up in her new Delta Electric Jet car is the famous commercial artist Miss June Mac Shaughnessy (who has changed her name to please the Marines), accompanied by her three nation-wide assistants Joe Occ., Ena Edmonds, and Marilyn Rakacky.

Just arriving from an extensive European tour, wrapped in "mink" stoles, are the two very prominent private secretaries "Tish" and "Alba", escorted by their handsome executives Walter "Heartbreaker" Ceconi, and Robert "Muscles" Collin. Miss Pagura is planning a visit to San Antonio, Texas.

The sound of spurs can now be heard in the corridor, as Bert "Vagabond" Helfinstein enters singing his favorite song, "Go West Young Man." Also with him is "Sparkle" Erickson, wrapped in one of his luxurious turkish suits, who is labeled one of the most eligible bachelors in town.

Entering the doorway now, one can see the smiling faces of those daring "Hot Rod" kings, "Speedy" Tait, "Flash" Donovan, "Jet" Skiba, and "Robot" Gileno.

Dinner is now being served under the supervision of Teddy Agar, and under the inspection of Freda Kirby and Ann Haggerty. A fine dinner is enjoyed by all.

As we pass around the tables we come upon that of the organizers of 'Ossining Inc." which is a recreational hall for Troubled Teenagers. They are the Misses Bette Yager, Rosalia Steponaitis, Dorothy Wonsala, and that delightful baton swinger, Angie Ippolito.

As we look across the dance floor we see the ever smiling faces of the girls who made the Strand Movie House famous, Miss Doris Chaisson, Barbara Ronan, and Barbara Lofaro.

Also attending the dinner are those famous models Pat Murphy, Alice "Me Me" Power, Jane Robbins, and Mary Jane Conti, who admit that they would never have been famous without the efforts of Pat Venitucci who coached them on his Island Home in the Indies while he was in training for the Yankees.

Miss Ida Migliarese was escorted by her fiance Frank Matra who is a famous member of the Board of Regents. Their motto is "silence is superior."

CLASS PROPHECY

The band music is now heard as the master of ceremonies steps out, Mr. John Forman, who has on one of his "Sinatra Jackets" which was designed by Danny Di Cairano who has been made famous for inventing this new money-saving jacket.

The first performer of the evening was the master of the keyboard, Angelo Cavalieri, who played one of his many Broadway hits.

As the performance was in full swing, coming in the doorway could be seen that famous husband and wife team, Bob and Nellie Robinson. After unceasing applause they were coaxed to sing a few lines of "We are Inseparable."

Next on the agenda for talent was the famous "Wincoral" trio whic hconsisted of Priscilla Dickson, Roman Windas, and Marilyn Cornell, followed by a trumpet piece by Benjamin Edmonds.

Murmurs are heard from one corner of the room where the world-famous scientists, Alex Lazor, and Ed Schulz, and Noted educator Paul Niebanck are debating over an atomic problem.

The baseball heroes, George Raishy and Gerald Cosgrove are also present. The famous track star, Neil Gollogly, arrived with his manager, Peter Oley. Also in the sportlight are those world-famous football and basketball stars, Bill Palmer, John Ragusa, Fred Opie, Hugh Nicol, and Paul Ranieri, who is now manager of the Hot Shots. "Sleepy Sam" McElwain appeared later to join them. To highlight the evening, pictures were taken by the Timmings Photographers, Inc.

In the business world are the tycoons Grace Brideau, who now has her own chain of ice-cream parlors, Elvira Belanich who now owns the Green Country Market, and Barbara Grierson now owner of the Sunnyside Restoration. They are waving to the audience with ten dollar bills.

A welcome sight to behold is that of Mary Mercer who is lavishly dressed but not accompanied by her announcer husband tonight; instead, she arrives with the famed private secretaries Jeanne Brogan, Mary Remling, and Shirley Volk.

In the medical department attending this celebration were Dr. Lorenzo Morata, Dr. Frank Kosilla, and Dr. Richard Kelly. With them also were their assistants, Miss P. D. Jones, and Miss Joan Marie Richard. They have successfully performed four or five operations.

Many of the television stars attended this great opening this evening. Among them were, Pat "Smiley" Gallagher, and Josephine "Ipana" Ferraro, who have made that wonderful toothpaste "White-All" so popular to television fans. Eleanor Lemon, Wilhelmina White, and Delman Mann just back from a tour and appearing in the musical "Mary's Other Husband" are present. Everyone knows of course that the male lead in this musical is that dancing whiz, Teddy London. A roar of laughter is heard as the comedy team Tornello and Shute arrive. They are featured every Tuesday in, "My Little Ravioli."

The splendor of the evening soon faded, and the class of '51 soon departed, but their great achievements and accomplishments will be remembered always.

VARSITY

The Headless Horsemen Football Team of 1950 turned in a very successful season with 6 wins and 1 loss. Captain Walter Ceconi and Co-Captain Bill Palmer led a veteran team to the Hudson River League Championship for the second time in three years.

From the opening day, the season promised to be a success as the Horsemen finally defeated the Hastings Yellow Jackets. The Horsemen's only defeat came against a powerful Greenwich team. The North Tarrytown squad did not have enough reserves to keep up with the Greenwich squad.

Honors came to Coach Charles Wilford when his team was selected as the outstanding team of the Class B competition in Westchester County. This honor brought the Rutgers Trophy to North Tarrytown High School.

The season was highlighted when James Powers was given the honor of being chosen as Quarterback fo rthe All Metropolitan first team. Honors were also bestowed upon Captain Walter Ceconi and Don Pastell. Walter made first team, All County guard, and Don made first team All County end.

ANDREW COHEN

JUNIOR VARSITY

Under the direction of Coach Willmott, the 1950 football season proved to be a successful one for the N. T. Junior Varsity. Losing but one game, that one to Ossining by a 19-0 score, they finished the season with a 5-1 record.

After starting the season with a hard-fought 6-0 win over Children's Village, they walked over Hastings 33-0. They came their only loss after which they coasted over Peekskill, Washington Irving, and Hackley and held their opponents scoreless.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Colts of North Tarrytown had a fair season with 9 victories and 9 defeats. The Colts were a team of hot and cold streaks. The outset of the season saw the Colts win six straight ball games before being defeated. After their first defeat they never attained their winning form again. Though the season was a poor one, is produced some boys who should be playing varsity ball very shortly.

PAUL RANIERI

VARSITY

With another baseball season beginning, the Headless Horsemen hope to have eight veterans returning to the squad.

The eight veterans, with a bit of hustle and spark from the new members of the team, could make N. T. a top contender for the H. R. L. Championship.

JUNIOR VARSITY

With Mr. Sager as coach, the Junior Varsity has won the first four games of the baseball season at N. T.

Their victories have been over Washington Irving, Pleasantville, Ossining, and Hackley. Some of the other games which the J. V. team has scheduled for this season are Children's Village and Peekskill.

All in all, the J. V. Baseball team, under the capable hand of Coach Sager, looks like an up and coming ball club. These boys, when they play varsity ball, will put N. T. down in the record books as a winning nine.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

When the 3:30 bell rings, you take your life in your own hands if you try to come down the stairway near the girls' locker room. This confusion is caused by the mad dash to the locker room for a quick change into gym suits, shorts or what have you, so as not to be late for intramural activities.

In the intramural schedule which the girls regard highly, there are many various sports which require all-around athletic ability. This intramural program is governed by seasonal activities. The school year usually begins with field ball or field hockey which is followed up by basketball. Basketball, incidentally, seems to be the most popular activity even though the girls come out of the games with a few bruises and scratches. Volleyball is the next major sport in which well-organized team work is required. In the spring, if time allows, games requiring individual skill such as badminton, tennis, and ping pong are offered to the girls.

Awards for participation in intramural activities are governed by a point system. Girls who receive letters not only have participated in all intramural sports for four years, but have also shown genuine athletic ability.

Tennis. Jeannette Sharpe, Jane Deely, Sheila Logan.

Softball, First Row: Pat Murphy, Arlene Stoller, Priscilla Dickson, June Shaughnessy, Nellie Marcelin. Second Row: Pat Jones, Pat Cudney, Marilyn Cornell, Alice Wright.

MISS ELLENE EDMONDS

Miss Edmonds, our coach, puts in many extra hours refereeing the games. After the games, her main job is administering first aid to the unfortunate. We Seniors, leave "Coach" with loads of thanks and appreciation. Not only have we found these activities to be loads of fun in promoting physical fitness, but they have also enabled us to get along with each other and become better sports.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society was founded in 1921 for the purpose of recognizing outstanding ability and achievement in the schools of our country. It now has 3,206 chapters representing 48 states, the District of Columbia, and American schools outside the United States.

To be eligible for membership, a pupil must rank scholastically in the upper third of his class and must show excellence in character, leadership and service to the school. Not more than 15% of those receiving diplomas may be members.

The North Tarrytown Chapter was formed in 1937.

THE JAMES TUREK AWARD

The work of Mr. James Turek at North Tarrytown High School will never be forgotten. His life served as a constant inspiration to the student body. The most recent scholastic award, the James Turek Memorial Award, symbolizes his genuine untiring interest in the scholastic advancement of young people.

The award is given to a deserving student, selected from the graduating class each year by a committee of teachers and Mrs. Catherine Turek Favareau, sponsor of the award. The basis of the award is citizenship and scholarship, and the purpose is to help further the pupil's education.

Last year, the award was presented to Richard Niebanck, an outstanding student in the school and a leader in many organizations. Richard was a member of the National Honor Society and Salutatorian of his class. He is now attending Hamilton College, and hopes to enter the ministry.

HEADLESS HORSEMAN HIGHLIGHTS

September 1950

Aster

School opened September 6. One new member joined the faculty staff and one joined the office staff. During the first few weeks organizations made plans for the coming year. The class of 1951 held a reception for the class of 1954. Patricia Seba and John Nicol were chosen class mascots by the seniors. The football season started with N. T. beating Hastings for the first time in the history of the school. Things were really beginning to hum in N. T. after the long summer vacation.

October 1950

Calendula

Showing its true colors, N. T. defeated Far Rockaway. The following Saturday N. T. continued its winning streak by beating Ossining. Everyone celebrated the victory that night at a dance sponsored by the class of '51. The following Saturday, the "Horsemen" traveled to Peekskill to play another victorious game. Rehearsals for the Three-One Act Plays were begun under the direction of Mr. Stanley W. Kalinger. The Junior Historical Society sponsored the second dance of the year. Our first professional assembly was an interesting speaker, who talked about the United States in 8113 A.D. The final game of the month was played when the "Horsemen" traveled to Mount Vernon to defeat Edison Tech.

November 1950

Chrisanthemum

November was a very busy month. The Three-One Act plays, under the direction of Mr. S. W. Kalinger, were a big success. Our second professional assembly was a skit presented by the Denison Players. The third assembly was a "Program of Magic" sponsored by Mr. E. Duncan. The "Horsemen" lost their only game of the season against Greenwich. The long-awaited W. I. — N. T. game was upon us, and the end of a hard fought game showed N. T. the victor, 25-13.

December 1950

Narcissus

This month's activities started with a very successful dance sponsored by the Junior Class. The basketball season started with the "Horsemen" traveling to Pleasantville where they were defeated. The second game of the season was played against Elmsford with N. T. the victor. N. T. started its second year playing ice hockey. The "Horsemen" opened the Hudson River League in a basketball game against W. I. N. T. was the loser. School closed for the Christmas vacation after a Christmas assembly was presented by the Music Department. Our well-known Christmas Carols instilled the season's spirit in the hearts of everyone.

January 1951

Carnation

On the morning of January 2, the excited students were seen returning to school discussing their activities of the vacation period and the presents they received. The "Horsemen" started the New Year with a bang, winning the Elmsford game. The Stepinac — N. T. game proved that Stepinac was the stronger of the two teams. Activities came to a halt as all students prepared for the coming Regents and mid-year exams. The tension of the week was relieved by the Senior dance where everyone forgot about his exams and enjoyed the wonderful entertainment. Angelo Cavalieri was chosen to appear on the Ted Mack Talent Show.

February 1951

Violet

Luck did not smile on the basketball team when N. T lost to Ossining, but changed its mind when N. T. defeated Stepinac. At the W. I. — N. T. game the authors proved to be the better team once more and walked off the court with the long end of the score. The athletic award assembly was held and Howard Kelly of W. I. received recognition as the Most Valuable Player of the W. I. — N. T. football game.

March 1951

Jonquil

The basketball season came to a close with Ossining and Bellows both defeating N. T. The General Organization sponsored the comedy "June Mad" which was a big hit. The long awaited Easter vacation arrived and school closed until April 2.

April 1951

Sweet Peas

A large group attended the Thespian Club dance and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The ever popular music festival was held and lived up to the high standards set in previous years. Its well-arranged program was enthusiastically received by all.

May 1951

Lily of the Valley

The sports world was again making news as the baseball and track teams prepared for their seasons. A group of students was inducted into the National Honor Society. Among the large crowd that attended the Sophomore Dance was a group that had a secondary motive. Besides having an evening of enjoyment, they felt the need to limber up for the always popular Junior-Senior Ball.

June 1951

Rose

Throughout the month, activities have been held to a minimum and excitement has continued to grow. Final exams were conquered and the Junior-Senior Ball proved to be the focal point of the social season. A large crowd danced and enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The grand climax of the Senior High School life began with Baccalaureate Services, followed by the light-hearted follies of Class Night. The long-awaited moment arrived when all of our senior friends received their diplomas and left N. T. seeking new fields to conquer.
